MARINE ARMY STOPS REBELS IN NICARAGUA

TWO SCORE OF MEN STOP ATTACK MADE BY FORCE OF 500

One Marine Killed, Other Men Injured in First Clash With Robbers

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, July 18. (AP)—Gunnery Sergeant Albert S. Munsch telephoned to Managua today that General Sandino had renewed the attack on Ocotol, but the officers of the United States Marines were disinclined to believe this, stating the message evidently was garbled.

Marine Gunner Michael Wodarczyk returned from a patrol mission today and on landing at Ocotol he reported that while looking for General Sandino, he saw a group of men southwest of San Fernando, fired over them and dropped a bomb after he had been fired on. Sergeant Munsch accompanied Wodarczyk in another plane.

Just after the planes were fired on Wodarczyk lost Munsch and the last he saw of the sergeant he was going down. Returning to Ocotol, Wodarczyk found Munsch and his plane on the field, a bullet having punctured his gas tank. A bullet also went through Munsch's pistol holster.

Wodarczyk's plane was hit three times, one bullet narrowly missing his leg.

Captain Hatfield reported this evening that all was well and that a column under Mayor Floyd was marching on Ocotol to prevent reorganization of Sandino forces.

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, July 18. (AP)—It is announced at the office of Brigadier General Logan Peland, commander of the American Marines in Nicaragua, that Major Hatfield's report gives 300 dead and 100 wounded among Sandino forces in the fighting at Ocotol.

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, July 18. (AP)—A second wave of American Marines supported by a few more than that number of Marine-trained and led native constabulary, hold the bloody field of Ocotol, scene of the first decisive engagement in the country since the occupation.

One Marine is dead, another seriously injured and one member of the constabulary has been treated for severe burns. Of the attacking force of 500 under the rebellious liberal, General Sandino, which tried during 17 hours Sunday to enter the town of Ocotol, three hundred to four hundred are wounded. Horrid vultures already sweep over the hotly contested field.

The battle might have terminated in different fashion had it not been for two scouting planes from Managua. Swinging across the country on a routine "look-see" the machines traversed the lines after the fighting had progressed several hours and brought word here.

A squadron of five bombers was ordered out at once by Brigadier General Logan Peland. Driving full speed over the 110 miles intervening, they swung low across the attacking lines, raking rifle-men and machine gunners with point blank fire. One bomb dropped into a group of skirmishers killed thirty. As successive charges detonated, General Sandino's followers threw away their arms and fled.

General in Flight

Tonight the general is believed to be fleeing to the fastnesses of the northeast with a handful of men.

SURRENDER OF PARTY SETTLES AUSTRIAN RIOT

Will Submit Dispute To Parliament On Thursday

VIENNA, July 18. (AP)—

Danger of further disorders and bloodshed in Austria was averted tonight by the unconditional surrender of the socialist party and the labor federation. The settlement of the three days' bitter strife, which shook Austria to its foundations, followed all day parades between Chancellor Seipel and the Social Burgomaster Seitz, the socialist leader, Otto Bauer, and the labor chief, Toni Schisch. The entire dispute will be submitted on Thursday to parliament, which the chancellor insisted should be the final arbiter. The United government parties have greatly enhanced their political prestige at the expense of the social Democrats who have been carrying on obstructions against the Seipel government for weeks past. The city is strongly patrolled day and night by regular volunteer police armed with rifles.

In behalf of Chancellor Seipel, Herr Kienbeck, minister of finance, announced the termination of the strike.

Great Government Success

"The government," he declared, "has achieved a great success. Parliament will probably be convoked Thursday and all the recent deplorable events discussed."

"The palace of justice will be rebuilt. Fortunately all real estate records were saved from the flames. The government applied to the American and British press to support it in its aims of securing indispensable foreign credits for Austria."

A public funeral for the victims of the riot has been set for Wednesday. The death toll in the vicinity of the palace of justice, parliament and other government buildings is placed at 84, with fully 500 seriously wounded in the city hospitals.

HOOPER TO DISCUSS FLOOD LEGISLATION AT COOLIDGE HOME

Administration Sees Tax Relief Before Flood Laws is Belief

RAPID CITY, July 18. (AP)—President Coolidge will engage this week in his first conference with a cabinet officer since coming to the Black Hills five weeks ago when Secretary Hoover speaks here on Wednesday.

Bringing with him a more detailed report on the Mississippi river flood, Mr. Hoover possibly will take up several important problems with the president. At this conference it is also likely Mr. Coolidge will get more detailed information which he desires before reaching a decision on the question of calling congress into special session before the regular meeting time in December.

While he does not believe the flood situation alone would necessitate a special session, the president is eager to learn how soon a report can be made on the Mississippi floods on which preventive legislation would be based. He hopes congressional committees can get to work on flood control measures at an early date. However, it is the view of the administration now that tax relief and appropriation bills should be given the right of way pending a thorough study of the flood problem.

GERMAN AVIATRIX TO MAKE STUNT FLIGHTS

NEW YORK, July 18. (AP)—Thea Rasch, German aviatrix, who arrived today on the Leviathan, with America's five trans-Atlantic fliers, wants no one's place in the sun.

She said so aboard the Leviathan when reporters tried to interview her. "Pay no attention to me," the aviatrix said. "This is their day." She patted Clarence Chamberlin on the back and pointed to Commander Byrd and his "shipmates" as she said this. Asked about her plans in America, she said:

"I shall do some stunt flying, probably starting a few days at Roosevelt Field. It has been said that I am coming to America to help fly back to Germany. That is my hope but I have no plane in which to do that. I hope to get backing for such a flight. I brought my plane with me for the stunt flying though."

HIT BY LIGHTNING, LIVES

Newport, R. I., July 18. (AP)—Robert Goetz, New York banker, was felled but not injured by the shock of a lightning bolt on the links of the Newport country club here today. His partner, William D. Rogers, also of New York, standing 50 yards away, also felt electricity and was momentarily blinded by the flash. He ran to the stunned man's side and helped him to the club house where Goetz quickly recovered.

Graphic Story Told Of Nicaragua Fight

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, July 18.

(AP)—A graphic account of the engagement between the American Marines and Nicaraguan constabulary and General Sandino's rebel forces at Ocotol, has been sent by Arnaldo Ramirez Abunza, jefe politico of Ocotol to President Adolfo Diaz by airplane. He describes the battle as one of the fiercest in the history of Nicaragua.

Sandino opened fire on the city from all directions at one o'clock Saturday morning. There were shouts and cheers for Sandino and "death to the Americans."

The fighting became general but it soon was evident that the stronghold of the Americans could not be taken.

"The constabulary fought bravely in municipally park," says the account. "My machine guns were sending forth a steady stream of bullets. American sharpshooters kept the constabulary clear. Any one so impudent as to cross my death."

"The hosts of Sandino sweep on, attempting to capture the park. It is now daylight—the Americans have not retreated an inch. The constabulary maintain their positions. American sharpshooters are piling up the dead."

"Rufu Marin falls seriously wounded. Rufu is right hand man of Sandino. With his death there is some confusion. The fighting decreases a little; the rebels take advantage of the calm and loot whatever is left to loot."

"Porfirio Sanchez with several of Sandino's generals offer protection to the city directing the movement of his troops. He sends a note to the heroic Captain Hatfield intimating that as he (Hatfield) had no water he would eventually have to surrender. Hatfield replied:

"I received your message and say, with or without water, I may never surrender. We remain here until we die or are captured." (Continued on Page Four)

TRANS OCEAN FLIERS BACK IN NEW YORK

Thousands Greet Men In Spite Of Rain And Fog

NEW YORK, July 18. (AP)—Through the same sort of fog and rain that obstructed their air paths to Europe, five trans-Atlantic fliers came back to their homeland today.

And as the gloomy weather through which they flew could not keep them from achieving their main purpose, so today it could not quench the enthusiasm of the thousands of their countrymen who welcomed them home.

The city tug Macom tied up during the morning to the liner Leviathan on which the fliers had come back. Commander Richard E. Byrd, leader of the scientific air expedition in the monoplane "America" was the first to board the Macom, there to be greeted affectionately by his aged mother.

He was followed by his pilot, Bert Acosta, his engineer, George Noville and his relief man, Bert Balchen. After them came Clarence Chamberlin, pilot of the plane "Columbia" and his co-pilot, Lindbergh, who was the first to land.

SPRINGFIELD EDITOR DIES AFTER STROKE

Clendenin, Nearly 90 Years Old, Kept To Desk

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 18. (AP)—

Henry Wilson Clendenin, 89, dean of Illinois editors, and editor and co-publisher of the Illinois State Register, died at 10:20 o'clock tonight at his residence in this city. Mr. Clendenin suffered a stroke of several days ago and because of his advanced age was unable to rally from its effects.

Mr. Clendenin, who would have been 90 years old next August, 1, having been born in 1837, has been at his desk nearly every afternoon until within a week ago when he complained of slight illness and remained at his home, 1099 South Second street.

He showed improvement and as late as last Saturday, was able to be up and about the house and was expecting to be at the office today, but at day-break Sunday morning, he suffered what seemed an acute attack of indigestion, accompanied by a slight stroke of paralysis and soon lapsed into unconsciousness. Though far advanced in age, he displayed vigorous vitality and because of this fact, attending physicians held out some hope Sunday.

At this morning it was evident that the end was near. All hope was abandoned.

A message to this effect was sent to Mr. Clendenin's associate publisher, Senator Thomas Ross, who, with Mrs. Ross, has been in Colorado Springs, Colo., for a few days. A similar message was sent to Mr. Clendenin's daughter, Mrs. Rosemary Clendenin, of Spokane, Washington. Other immediate members of the family are at Mr. Clendenin's bedside.

Mr. Clendenin is the dean of Illinois editors and one of the oldest in continuous service in the United States. He is a veteran of the Civil war and has been (Continued on Page Four)

STATE'S ATTORNEY REFUSES TO BRING BACK BOMB TOSSE

Declines to Aid Defense in
Burger Case by Returning Kane

MARION, Ill., July 18. (AP)—State Attorney Arlie O. Boswell said today he had ordered the release of Edgar Kane, Waterloo, Iowa, aviator, who was not to be brought back to Illinois to be a witness in the defense of Harry Adams, charged with the murder of Mayor Joe Adams of West City.

Kane, who was arrested at Waterloo, Iowa, after Adams' death, had been released from an airplane last November 12.

"The whole thing aroused my suspicions," Boswell said. "I received a telegram last Saturday demanding that I notify Waterloo police immediately when he would send for Kane. It occurred to me that some one was anxious for us to bring Kane back to Illinois at once. We are not a lawless state, and we're not willing to assist the defense of Burger at Benton."

"I wired the Waterloo officers to turn the man loose. If we want to question him later about some other thing, we can have him picked up again after the trial at Benton is over. In the meantime, the Burger defense cannot bring the man back to this state on a subpoena. The only way he can be forced to return is on an indictment for a felony. If we had brought him back on a charge of attempt to murder, we would have played right into the hands of Burger's defense."

At Benton today, Robert E. Smith of defense counsel, said the defense would not be able to bring Kane there to testify unless he came of his own accord.

REFORM SCHOOL YOUTH WOUNDED IN BATTLE

CHICAGO, July 18. (AP)—Stanley Marszalek, 21, who "got into trouble" and was sent to the reformatory at Pontiac and finally paroled to his mother on his promise to "prove himself a man," got his chance today.

He rushed bare headed at two armed robbers who held up his mother in their grocery, dropped to the floor with three bullet wounds in his body, then got up and renewed the fight. The robbers fled and he pursued them into the street where they again opened fire on him. The youth staggered half a block toward them before he collapsed unconscious. Doctors said he may die.

FIX TENTATIVE AGREEMENT FOR BIG CRUISERS

YOUTHFUL CONVICT SAYS BIRGER PAID FOR KILLING ADAMS

Testifies Gang Chieftain Boasted Right Smart of Mayor's Killers

BENTON, Ill., July 18. (AP)—Clarence Rome, a pale-faced convict of less than a score of years, today testified that Charles Birger, his former gang chief, planned and paid for the murder of Mayor Joe Adams of West City for which Birger, Art Newman and Ray Hyland are on trial in circuit court here.

Birger, who had been called the "Titan of Egypt" in the colloquial language of southern Illinois, sat with his eyes closed, over his head as Rome described the inception of the plan which the state alleges Birger formulated to kill Adams, who harbored the rival, Shotton gangsters, then in the throes of a bitter feud with Birger.

Beginning with the evening of last December 13, the alleged plan, the murder, Rome described the arrival of the Thompson brothers, Harry and Elmo, in a small room, later at "Shady Rest," Birger's fortified roadhouse between Marion and Harrisburg. Harry Thompson, who has confessed that he and his brother, Elmo, killed Adams under orders from Birger, was here today ready to take the stand.

Saw Payment Made

Rome related how he heard Birger "boast rich man" of the Thompson brothers and how he was alleged to have followed his orders and killed Adams. He said he saw Connie Porter, a missing lieutenant of Birger, pay $150 to Harry Thompson at Birger's command. Harry, he said, gave $50 to his brother and $50 to Elmo, of their automobile.

Rome also charged that Birger handed a pistol to Harry Thompson before the killing and gave him the decoy note by which Adams was lured to his front door where he was shot down.

David Garrison and Alva Wilson, surprise witnesses, brought from Pontiac reformatory, testified that Birger, four days before the Adams slaying, had offered them $100 each if they would kill Mayor Adams. Garrison said Birger designated Mayor Adams as the victim.

Adams' widow and 15-year-old daughter, Arlean, testified at the forenoon session, describing the slaying in detail and telling of alleged threats made against the mayor by Birger.

PACIFIC FLIERS TO LEAVE FOR AMERICA

HONOLULU, July 18. (AP)—Ernest L. Smith and Emory B. Roper, who reached Honolulu last Friday morning with their gasoline exhausted by the flight from Oakland, Cal., were immediately preparing to leave for the mainland Wednesday on the steamship Matsushima, in company with orders received by Smith from officials of the Pacific Air Transport, of which he is an employee.

If they ever make the Hawaii flight again, the aviators said, they would install larger gasoline tanks.

"The principal thing in a hop from the mainland is to have enough gas so that if you overfly the islands you can fly back again," observed Bronte.

"We undoubtedly had a leak in our tank for our 370 gallons of gasoline," Smith said, "and it was much lower. Under ordinary circumstances, that much gasoline would be enough, but an extra supply would come in handy to meet just such an emergency as we faced."

Another thing we'd do in another flight would be to take a larger supply of water," added Bronte. "We carried just one little quart can-on and there wasn't any left when we landed on Molokai."

"You don't need much food on a long flight, we ate only a couple of bananas and some apples. Your motor, though, keeps you pretty hot and thirsty and you need a lot of water."

HUGE UNION STATION PLANNED FOR CHICAGO

CHICAGO, July 18. (AP)—A vast union station, housing 14 railroad lines and costing $100,000,000 or $150,000,000 is being planned for Chicago.

While most plans for the structure are tentative several of the railroad officials have admitted plans are beyond the embryonic stage and that construction is expected to start in two years when the project of straightening out the Chicago river will have been completed.

U. S., GREAT BRITAIN WILL GET 12, JAPAN 8 UNDER NEW PLAN

More Trouble Seen Ahead in Settlement of Gun Small
Ship Issue

GENEVA, July 18. (AP)—Twelve 10,000 ton cruisers to the United States, twelve to Great Britain and eight for Japan, such is the tentative agreement reported to have been reached today at a private meeting of the child delegates to the tripartite naval conference.

Despite the fact that the conference has been revivified by the mediation of the Japanese and the conciliatory attitude of the British difficulties are expected to be encountered and must be overcome before the success of the party can be assured.

Now that Great Britain has come down in total tonnage figures and met the American view in this respect, the outstanding problem to be solved is the size of the smaller cruisers and the size of the guns to be mounted on these.

The British spokesman said tonight that it would be exceedingly difficult for Great Britain to obtain even the reduced number of cruisers, as now proposed unless the Americans and Japanese agreed to lower the displacement limit in the second category of cruisers and restrict the guns to six inches.

But the Americans may ever ask the right to have the maximum of the second category placed at 8,000 tons, instead of keeping it at 7,500, which represents the indefinite tonnage of the Omaha class of cruisers. The British tendency is to restrict this size to 6,000 tons and to keep eight inch guns off the seas or less they are installed on 10,000 ton cruisers.

Improves Japan's Ratio

The American delegation apparently is aiming to convince the British that the American navy whatever guns are carried, is not built against Great Britain and that because of close Anglo-American friendship there can be no justification for apprehension.

Moreover, the American position is that the British navy will be superior to the American up to the date of the termination of the projected treaty, no matter how fast Uncle Sam may lay down warships.

The element of a preliminary Anglo-Japanese understanding concerning the maintenance of a commission of obsolete cruisers is believed, can be worked out satisfactorily and the problem of the size of subsidiary cruisers and their armaments stands out as the most stubborn block. As to the submarines, it is deemed unlikely that Japan will insist upon parity with the United States and great Britain, newly taking for a proportion better than 5-5-5 established at Washington for capital ships.

Sacrifice Building Program

If the alleged tentative agreement concerning 10,000 ton cruisers stands, it means a sacrifice of the Japanese navy in the particular war ship, thus improving Japan's position.

Great Britain already possesses four 9,500 ton cruisers of the Hawkins class, and is building fourteen large cruisers, all but one of which have 10,000 ton displacement and it has a program for nine other 10,000 ton cruisers.

"All this," he added, "not only implies cancellation on our part but the actual loss of a considerable sum of money as it inevitably involves the cancellation of contracts."

ADVERTISING FOR CRIMINALS

The new fiction of American brothers almost got away with it. There was almost the "perfect crime." They worked a mail train in Oregon, killed the crew and disappeared. Years went by and the story faded. Then, suddenly, it was forgotten by the many, and added to the list of unsolvable mysteries.

But they and their deed were not forgotten. The Santa Ana, unweary as the famous detective who shadowed them, followed them all his moves and changes, kept on the trail of those three brothers. They had committed a deadly crime against the United States Mail, and that was unforgivable and unforgettable.

How, then, were the criminals followed? By the most effective of modern detective publicity.

Millions of Americans now remember having seen in post offices, again and again, year after year, notices of those three brothers and their crime, and the offer of a reward for information about them. Millions of circulars were printed and distributed, half a million dollars was spent. And at last the criminals were apprehended and the perfect crime was solved.

It was a triumph of advertising, whose scope embraces the world and all in it.

ADDING LESSONS

Every day some new inventor adds another "less" to airplanes. Nicola Tesla predicts a fuel-less airplane, and it is expected that New York to Paris and return in 24 hours. That's about "time-less," and we suppose such a ship would be "price-less" and the undertaking "matchless" so it would seem "use-less" to seek further invention.

TODAY'S TALK

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS
Author of "You Can," "Take It," "Up."

TO LOSE FAITH

Our days are shadowed by a faith. That which we do that is not accompanied by a belief in its worth might as well not be done at all.

It is our faith in an idea, a mission, or a friend that holds us to the task. To lose faith is to have something in the flesh and blood of a human being that all else cannot challenge comparison with.

This loss of faith in a friend brings on a depression that nothing ever quite wipes away. Days pass and you go back to your friend, clothing him in the garment you most loved him in. You tell him to your side for the comfort you most desired, and in your heart you refuse to give him up or to believe him false — though the facts at hand spell nothing but the truth that he no longer is of your world a vital part. He has left you with a damaged faith.

An inspiring spectacle was presented as the Commander of the "America," Richard Byrd, came to realize that he and his companions of the air were hopelessly lost in the fog over France and that a quick decision must be made. So he handed to one of his companions, Lieut. Noville, the written sentence: "We are going to crash!" The interpid companion merely raised his hand, as though to say: "Very well, Commander."

They did crash, but with a master at the helm, a Norseman worthy of his heritage. It was Balchen's wonderful piloting that saved the lives of those four men who had faced death without a whimper. But behind it all was that sublime faith that each man had in his Commander who gave his orders.

Even the insignificant things in this world become great as we fortify them with faith—that substance which is the essence of all our striving in this world.

DEMPEY'S SORE ARM DOES NOT WORRY MEN

Stiffness Develops After Hard Workout But Trainers Claim It Will Be In Top Condition When He Meets Sharkey.

SARATOGA LAKE, N. Y., July 18. (AP)—An amazing report that Jack Dempsey had suffered an injury to his left arm in training stirred the camp of the former champion tonight and met with the most common-place of explanations.

Because of a slight soreness in the muscles of the left forearm, caused several days ago by the blocking of sparring partners' punches, Jack's arm had been bandaged nightly over a camphor dressing, handlers said, as well as his legs and other parts of the body that might develop lameness after a particularly hard workout. The arm will be in perfect condition when Dempsey meets Jack Sharkey in the Yankee stadium Thursday night, they said.

Coming on the tail end of a day that saw Dempsey while a 200 pound sand bag for six minutes during a seven round workout.

chiefly with left hooks that nearly tore the huge casing from its mooring, the report was received with open incredulity at first but gained strength from the admission of Manager Leo P. Flynn that Dempsey's arm was sore.

Flynn declared, however, that bandaging is customary during training to keep a soothing dressing on an athlete's muscles during sleep, and had no more significance of injury than the bandaging of the legs of a thoroughbred race horse.

Handlers denied that the soreness in Dempsey's arm was accountable for the two day lay-off of the former champion over the week-end or the sudden decision of Dempsey's handlers to forego further boxing before the fight, three days away. It was admitted, however, that Jack had no desire to risk stiffening the arm with further bruises or to take the chance of suffering a sprain or cut so close to the end of the training period.

HITS FOUR THOUSANDTH TIME.
Detroit, July 18. (AP)—Tyus Raymond Cobb, who has broken and holds more records in big league baseball than any other man, living or dead, broke out his four thousandth hit today when he doubled in the first inning of the game between Detroit and Philadelphia.

The double helped to give Philadelphia two runs when Coghane's single drove in Cobb and Bishop, who had advanced to third on the two base blow.

BERLENBACH WINS IN COME-BACK CAMPAIGN

NEW YORK, July 18. (AP)—Paul Berlenbach, former light heavyweight champion, won a judges' decision from Bill Conley of Lewiston, Maine, in a 10 round contest tonight at the St. Nicholas arena. Berlenbach weighed 171½ and Conley 176.

Berlenbach, who is engaged in a comeback campaign, met a tough and willing foe in Conley, the New Englander being ready and eager to swap punches all the way. From the sixth to the ninth Conley was on the aggressive and worked a sharp left hook to Berlenbach's head and body.

Berlenbach inflicted severe body punishment on his rival but at no stage was Conley in danger of going to the floor.

Aronzville, July 18. (Special)—Changing back to the players of the 1925 team, the Aronzville Grays will take the field against the Valley City sluggers on next Sunday with a team of old-new faces.

YANKS TAKE ANOTHER ONE FROM THE BROWNS

Gehrig Gets 21st Homer and Leads Ruth by One—Senators Win From Six to One—Boston and Cleveland Split Even—Gibson Won Pitcher's Battle From Lefty Grove.

ST. LOUIS, July 18. (AP)—George Phipps held the Browns in check today and the New York Yankees won the third game of the series ten to six. It was the tenth victory of the season for the League leaders over the Browns who have not yet won a game from them.

For six innings the game was a series of pitching duels between Phipps and Ernie Winkard, but the latter weakened in the seventh, when the Yankees scored six runs. In the eighth Gehrig made his 31st home run of the year of November with two men on base and again took the lead over Babe Ruth and Eddie Collins. The Yankees led 10-6 in the ninth inning rally by the Browns which failed to wipe out the long Yankee lead.

FAST MATCHES OPEN CITY NET TOURNAMENT

Bradish, Hopper, Gehring, and Vorbeck Come Thru First Round Games—Six Matches Scheduled For Today.

Audible sighs, bursts of applause, interested witnesses, and fast tennis marked the opening of the city championship tennis tournament last night in the Illinois college courts. Phillip Bradish, Mercer Hopper, Martin Gehring and Edward Vorbeck were victorious in their first games last night. Six more games are scheduled for the college courts today, play beginning at 3:15 this afternoon with David Lander meeting William Thurman and George Johnson meeting Allen Kelly.

Mercer Hopper had a hard fight in winning over Bob Reid, the first set going 18 games. Hopper winning 10. There were six games in the first set which went to deuce. Hopper won the second set 6-4, but had a fight all the way, two games of this set going to deuce several times.

Martin Gehring had an uphill battle. Henry Ricks forcing him into a third set to decide the winner. The first set went to Gehring, 6-2, but Ricks found his stroke in the second set to win 6-4. Gehring came back in the last set and won again 6-4.

Bradish went thru his first round match with comparative ease, winning 6-3, 6-0 over Ernest Duncan.

Edward Vorbeck went thru the first round when LaVerne Hadley, considered by many as a strong player, was called out of the city.

In a composite score of the Hopper-Bradish match Hopper won both sets by the narrow margin of twelve points, six points to a set.

Three courts were pressed into use last night, two clay and one cement court attracting the attention of many followers of the net sport who were present at Illinois college last night.

Following the afternoon games today Jack Vickery will meet Owen Thompson, Jerry Shibe and C. Y. Rowe will meet Kenneth Danksin and Walter Bellatti will tie up in a battle which threatens to go into a deuce sets and Walter Bradish and Vorce Bassett will meet in another game which bears all the earmarks of being one of the hottest games of the series.

Class spectators itself last night and tennis devotees here were enthusiastic over the showing made by the entries.

Philadelphia, July 18. (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates avenged their double defeat at the hands of the Philadelphia Nationals last Saturday by taking both ends of today's twin bill with the Phillies, winning the first game 9 to 7 and the second 6 to 5.

The Pirates won the opener by breaking a five to five deadlock in the fifth inning and scoring three runs that drove Tony Kaufmann off the hill. Vic Aldridge was also hammered out of the box but Emil Yde was an able rescuer.

Lee Meadows only gave up five hits in the first eight innings of the last game and had things well in hand until the ninth when he exploded and the home team drew within one run of tying the score. Carmen Hill fanned Cy Williams and retired Leach on a pop fly with the bases filled.

Williams hit his 19th homer of the season in the opener.

TILDEN AND JOHNSTON UPHOLD TENNIS TITLE
Juniors Win in All Other Events in National Clay Court Championship Matches—Both Win in Straight Sets.

DETROIT, Mich. July 18. (AP)—William T. Tilden, 11, and Wallace Johnston, both Philadelphia and veterans of tennis play, served notice on all comers in the National Clay Courts Tennis tournament today that they had receded little from their former standing.

"Big Bill" did so with his cannon ball service and drives to the base and side lines. Johnston was more deft, chop stroking and soft-balling a good opponent into submission.

Except for the showing of these two veterans all the honors of warfare went to junior players. In the only two matches of the day going five sets, Richard Lush, Hotchkiss, California, Junior, disposed of John Proctor, Toronto and Walter Thomack, Elizabeth, N. J., and Andrew Academy star, defeated William Irwin, Grand Rapids, Michigan, interscholastic champion.

Ryuki Miki, Japanese player, defeated Lemle, Monroe, La., in straight sets.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Beadles and daughter, Gretchen have returned to their home after a motor trip thru Wisconsin, South Bend, Ind., and other points of interest.

Dr. A. E. Prince of Springfield, Ill., (Specialty Cataract) will see his Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat patients at the New Pacific Hotel the first Thursday of each month.

"FAN BREEZES"

Fast, speedy, clever and hard fought. If we had a few more adjectives we could better describe tennis.

The matches that were played on the Illinois College courts last night.

Moments of suspense were plentiful last night. Members of the fair sex present at the tournament, gasped as the ball seemed to hang in suspense over the net, the question of "will it go over?" always being present in their minds.

One more application for entry in the woman's tournament was received last night, bringing the sum total to four.

Four more are wanted before the drawings are made.

Uncle Walt has gone on his vacation, but his last words to us were: "Don't forget to tell the fight fans that we'll have the usual Extra Ordinary Service, meaning direct wire from the ringside, for the Dempsey-Sharkey fight on Thursday night."

One of the greatest hook ups for broadcasting is going to give out the fight round by round, but radio fight fans should remember the usual summer bug-bear, old man Statie, before banking on the radio to get the dope.

Stations from coast to coast have arranged to get the fight.

The main worry of Jake Ruppert now is: What will I have to pay Gehrig next year?

But to get back to the fight—here is what Jack Delaney, light heavy champion has to say about it.

"Dempsey still has his punch left. Slow of foot, he is trying to change his fighting style. Sharkey is faster. Anything is liable to happen."

Benny Leonard, after looking over Dempsey, says:

"Jack Dempsey needs to sharpen up his hitting and tighten up judgment of distance and accuracy. Jack Sharkey is in better fighting and physical condition."

Pick the right one—but be sure you do.

Chet Sharpe, local fight follower, says he wants Sharkey to win because he feels that he didn't get a square deal.

He also says that Sharkey is a younger man and Dempsey can't hit like the killer he used to be.

We'll have some more opinions for you tomorrow.

And in the meantime—talk it over with the boss.

INDEES VICTORS OVER BEARDSTOWN NINE 6-5
Slugging the ball hard in the final three innings of the game, Frank Smith's Indies rallied enough to defeat Beardstown Sunday on the Beardstown diamond.

6 to 5. The game was the first of a series of five games, the second of which is to be played on the Jacksonville diamond next Sunday.

Playing before a crowd of 900 fans, the Indies began the contest with stage fright. Beardstown, whose field has been under water for the earlier part of the season and has recently been opened, hit the ball and took a few chances and grabbed the lead.

The Indies came out of the stage fright when the game neared the close and began slugging with a vim that forced them into the lead. Heavy hitting was one of the features of the game, each pitcher being charged with nine safeties, some of which were for two and three bases.

RETURN FROM MOTOR TRIP.
Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Beadles and daughter, Gretchen have returned to their home after a motor trip thru Wisconsin, South Bend, Ind., and other points of interest.

WALTHER LEAGUE IN SESSION WILL NAME OFFICERS FOR YEAR

Three Selected to Run in Presidential Race—Business Better

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 18 (AP).—Receiving of nominations for officers for the ensuing year featured today's session of the thirty-fifth international convention of the Walther League.

Nominations for principal officers followed:

President—E. J. Gallmeyer, Fort Wayne, Ind.; A. A. Grossman, St. Louis and A. B. Towold, Milwaukee.

Vice-president—Edwin Messer, of Oakland, Cal., and O. C. Beck, of Denver.

Treasurer—P. A. Schack, Fort Wayne and Walter Resens, Chicago.

The election will be held tomorrow.

F. A. Schack, Fort Wayne, treasurer of the league reported that total receipts for the past year were $124,711, of which the league contributed $76,792 to benevolent and charitable purposes.

The greater part of the contributions, he said, went to the Lutheran sanitarium at Wheatridge, Colorado, for tubercular patients.

O. A. Dorn, business manager, reported that the business department had increased its business considerably during the past year.

Gives Main Address.

Dr. H. B. Hommeser, of Rochester, N. Y., delivered the principal address of the afternoon session.

"We are challenged to bear on the torches of heavenly radiance," he said, "especially those of the younger generation. We can do it by humble consecration of our hearts and lives to the Christ God. We can take up the glorious cause that the past transmits to us by remaining true to the cardinal principles of the reformation, the supremacy and sufficiency of scripture and the scriptural truth of the justification of the sinner by faith in Christ alone without the works of the law."

Greetings from the Jugendbund, a sister organization of the league in Germany, were extended to the convention by the Rev. W. Oesch, a graduate of Concordia Seminary here. Greeting also were received from the Lutheran League of Australia and China.

The convention adopted a resolution containing an administrative budget of $40,000 for the coming year.

A. A. Grossman, St. Louis, international president of the league, reviewed the activities since the last convention.

The report of the committee on resolutions, calling for a budget of $40,000 for the coming year, was followed by a lengthy debate as the Texas delegation and many of the women from northern states advocated $50,000 to enable the executive committee to do more promotional work among the youths of the church.

The president reported the "Walther League Messenger" and the "Concordia Junior League Messenger," the official organs of the league, had been put on a paying basis and that the past year had witnessed a fruition of a plan long contemplated, the acquisition of the property and control of the Lutheran sanitarium at Denver.

The Rev. P. G. Prokopy, executive secretary of the league, reviewing the three food campaigns for the poverty stricken and starving children of Central Europe, reported approximately 500,000 pounds of clothing and foodstuffs had been forwarded and in addition a surplus of more than $5,000 had been appropriated for the orphans' home in Potsdam.

After cross examination, Ray Birger, defense attorney, Ray Thomasson, brother of Harry and Elmo Thomasson, was called by State's Attorney Martin.

Birger Warns Brother.

Thomasson told of a visit he and his wife paid Birger at his home in Harrisburg last March. Thomasson said he had learned that State's Attorney Martin had been to Pontiac to question his brother Harry, who was incarcerated there for robbery.

"Did Birger say anything to you about Harry?" State's Attorney Martin asked.

"Yes, he told me I had better go up to Pontiac and see my brother and tell him to stand pat," Thomasson said. "Birger said 'If Harry talks and this Adams affair comes out, he will get the same as I do. They will hang us both.'"

It was finally decided, Thomasson said, that he and his wife should go to Pontiac the next day. Birger provided an automobile and gave Thomasson $25.

Thomasson said he told the gang leader that the money was unnecessary and that Birger replied "You might give the money to Harry in the reformatory."

What the brothers said to each other at Pontiac was not admissible as it was not said in the presence of the defendants.

Cross examination was stopped when court was declared recessed until 3:30 o'clock tomorrow morning.

From the office of the chancellor a statement was issued asserting that the army remains absolutely loyal to the government and condemning the socialists for their attack on the police, who, it is contended, should not have been indicted before an unbiased hearing was had by parliament.

At noon today the Seipel government still was deadlocked with the socialist and labor leaders in a desperate effort to bring about an agreement. Both factions apparently are seeking a strategic escape from the dilemma arising out of Friday's disorders. To this extent the socialists are holding a general strike in abeyance as a club calculated to force concessions from Chancellor Seipel.

An Ex-Buck PRIVATE goes back to FRANCE by PAUL ADAMS
A Poor French Artist Who Choose
Pup-Tents for His Canvas

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is chapter 90 of the series of articles written by a Journal correspondent who is revisiting France as an advance guard for the "Second A. E. F."

Chapter 90

If, in some future time, France produces a celebrated painter by the name of Albert Duvivier, the success and fame will be attributable to just one thing—the American army pup-tent.

Escozette! which is French for listen, Lester!

Albert Duvivier was demobilized from the French army quickly and he returned to St. Juvin, which is near Grand Pre, three weeks after the armistice was signed. Many Americans were in the town, and he, being a photographer with a good camera, took advantage of their presence. In 1919 the American soldiers departed, but they left behind a considerable number of the OD canvas tents in which they incorporated their packs.

Albert Duvivier had always wanted to become a painter—but he lacks the facilities. So, one day, while out salvaging the American stores that had been left behind, he janked a pup-tent from a pile of debris. It appeared to be strong and durable. He searched for more. The search brought several dozen to light. He built and easel and bought brushes and colors.

Then, on squares of that pup-tent canvas, he began to try out his talent. And he had a talent, too. With no previous instruction, with no knowledge of art except that which had lain dormant for so many years in his brain—he copied several masterpieces. Then he took a calendar and reproduced all the illustrations for the months of the year. More than that, in his new easel which was rebuilt out of the wreckage of the place he conducted before the war, he painted many scenes.

St. Juvin. The proportions may be faulty; the technique may be slightly askew. But, hanging over the bar and around the walls above the tables are many paintings—"La Vieille Femme en Bretagne," "La Forte LaLotte," "Les Petit Amis," "Les Moutons"—and others. The exhibit will be there as proof of the quality of American stores—if nothing else—when the American Legion members trek that way in September.

Monsieur Albert Duvivier may never be hailed as one of the foremost painters of France. But if he ever does become famous, he will attribute his success to just one thing—the American army pup tent.

Tomorrow: German Ceme-teries.

Gives "Surprising Results"

Thousands of people are writing to the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) expressing their surprise at the results they get from using Iso-Vis. That is because Iso-Vis does what no other motor oil has ever done before—it holds its body—maintains constant viscosity. Here is one of the thousands of letters received from enthusiastic motorists:

Dear Sirs:

I am operating a 2 1/2 ton Kissel truck, hauling milk. Have used Iso-Vis for the past three months with surprising results.

I formerly drained and refilled the crank case every 700 miles, but Iso-Vis has increased my mileage to 1,200 miles; and even then the body is still good.

I heartily recommend Iso-Vis to any one seeking an efficient and economical motor oil.

Respectfully,
Otto P. Seegert

Iso-Vis—at 30c per quart—is an "efficient and economical motor oil"—lasts longer—makes your car last longer—and gives you more motoring satisfaction than you've ever known. Iso-Vis "F" for Fords.

SUMMER DULLNESS HITS STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, July 18. (AP)—The stock market lapsed into summer dullness today but the undertone continued firm. Heavy trading, notwithstanding, the belief that the recent rapid advance to new high ground had impaired the market's technical position, was offset by a resumption of pool activities in the rails and specialties, more than a score of which attained new peaks.

A flood of money was again available today for loans on stock collateral but the official rate on call loans was again maintained at four per cent. Time money and commercial paper rates held steady.

The so-called "merger talk" again came to the spot light. Erie touched a new high record at 62 1/2 on reports that a strong banking group had taken a long pull bull position in the stock. Kansas City Southern crossed to 70 for the first time and was followed into new high ground by Southern Railway, Southern Pacific, Northern Pacific, Great Northern preferred and Peoria & Western.

Buying of the industrials was of a highly selective character. U. S. Steel common, American Smelting, General Railway Signal, S. Industrial Alcohol and some of the other recent favorites sold down a point or two and Commercial Solvents B broke 1 1/2 points.

Coty, Inc., and Manhattan Electrical Supply each soared seven points to new peak prices. Among other issues to break into new high ground were American Bosch Magneto, Bayuk Cigars, Gabriel Snubbers, General Electric, National Lead and Westinghouse Electric.

What prices broke two or more cents a bushel on more favorable weather reports. Foreign exchange was slightly easier. Demand sterling ruled around $4.85 5/32 and French francs just below 3.9 1/2 cents.

Convertible bonds were in high favor with buyers in today's market. Most of the other classes received little attention. Trading continued to decline, barely exceeding $8,000,000 and establishing a new low record for this year.

Firmness of high grade securities was attributed to easy money conditions and the recent lowering of prices for certain unsubscribed new issues.

Rather large purchases of third and fourth Liberty 4 1/2s during the morning brought a slight increase in the prices, which later was lost. Other government issues were quiet.

Erie B 4s was the individual feature, jumping more than two points to a new peak price of 124 1/2, more than 40 points above the year's low. Continued firmness was shown by such railroad mortgages as Washburn 5s, some of the B & O issues and Chesapeake 6s.

Some of the Austrian bonds, which were heavy last Saturday in consequence of political disorders in that country, regained most of their losses today.

CHICAGO CASH GRAIN

Chicago, July 18. (AP)—A good inquiry existed for cash wheat in the local market today from mills. Bulk of arrivals, however, on previous contracts, local sales 5,000 bushels. Deliveries on July contracts 80,000 bushels and sales to store 100,000 bushels. Booked to arrive 50,000 bushels. No fresh export business reported.

Corn was fairly active with basis steady to 1c firmer on choice quality and steady to 1c easier on others. Local sales 43,000 bushels. Deliveries 13,000 bushels and cancellations 146,948 bushels. Booked to arrive 20,000 bushels.

Oats were 1 to 1c easier; basis steady to 1c lower. Local sales 23,000 bushels and deliveries 56,000 bushels. Booked to arrive 7,000 bushels.

Indianapolis Livestock

Indianapolis, Ind. July 18. (AP)—U. S. Department of Agriculture—Hogs—receipts 4,000; uneven to 25c higher; 160 to 200 pounds $10.35 to $10.60; top lights $10.65; 200 to 225 pounds $10 to $10.55; 225 to 250 pounds $9.25 to $10.25; packers $8.75 to $9.40; pig $8.50 to $9.25.

Cattle—receipts 1,000; steers slow, 25c lower; few loads $10 to $12; cows weak to 25c lower; mostly $6.25 to $8.25; light heifers steady; odd head up to $12; vealers $13.50 to $14.

Sheep—receipts 500; steady; considering quality good lambs $13 to $13.50; choice $13.75.

CHICAGO BUTTER MARKET

Chicago, July 18. (AP)—In today's butter market liberal offerings resulted in a decline on 92 scores. Market tone weak and trade dull. Receivers were true sellers but buyers were very conservative and held-off for concessions which were obtainable in same quarters. The centralized car market was easy with offerings liberal and trade dull. Fresh 82 scores 39 1/2; 91 score 39; 90 score 38 1/2; 89 score 37 1/2; 88 score 36; 87 score 36. Centralized: 90 score 35 1/2; 89 score 37 1/2; 88 score 37 1/2.

C. OF C. MEMBERSHIP TO MEET EACH MONTH

News Letter Issued By Chamber of Commerce—To Work on Traffic Problem.

Regular monthly meetings of the entire membership of the Chamber of Commerce are announced in a news letter of the organization sent recently to all its members. The monthly meetings will begin in September and are intended to bring about a closer contact between officers and members in carrying on the work of the Chamber. Projects on which the organization can work may be brought up and discussed at these meetings. Dr. C. P. McClelland, president of Illinois Woman's college has been chosen to conduct the discussions.

The news letter also announces that the Chamber of Commerce is interested in working with city officials to develop a more practical traffic system for the city. Jacksonville, as the Chamber's message points out, is a city in her troubles, as the increase in automobiles has made it impossible to keep the city streets in perfect condition. The problem will be handled by the committee on transportation, of which Clara M. Bell is chairman.

The letter also carries a notice regarding the big picnic of 3,000 C. B. & Q. employees that is to be held here July 25. The Pikes Peak Ocean to Ocean survey tour that is to visit the city next Saturday morning and announces the new chamber committees as selected by Dr. H. H. Johnson, president.

On an enclosed list of questions members are asked to answer to the following questions:

1. What do you expect of the organization, to do for the promotion of your own line of business or activity?
2. What, in your opinion, as a citizen, are the things of importance to be done for the community as a whole?

MISS FANNIE HOOK DIES IN PENNSYLVANIA

At One Time Owned and Operated Jacksonville Street Railway Company—Interment to Take Place Here.

M. C. Hook of this city last night received a message telling of the death of his aunt, Miss Fannie Hook, former well known Jacksonville resident. Miss Hook passed away Monday night in Philadelphia, Pa., after an illness of brief duration. Funeral services will be conducted in Pennsylvania and the body will be brought to Jacksonville where interment will take place in the Diamond Grove cemetery.

Miss Hook was born in Jacksonville and would have been 51 years of age had she lived. Until August 16 of this year she made her home in this city until about twenty years ago when she went East to reside at Malvern, Pa. She was at one time owner of the local system of street railways.

The decedent and her brother, William S. Hook, acquired control of the Jacksonville Street Railway company in 1887. Twenty years after its incorporation, in 1890 they secured from the city council the right to operate an electric car line, which was completed and in operation in the spring of 1892. Miss Hook superintended exclusively the railway system for a number of years making improvements in the roadbed and rolling stock. Subsequently she sold the system to the Illinois Traction company.

She is survived by three nephews, W. S. Hook, Jr., and Barlow Hook of Los Angeles, Cal., and M. C. Hook of this city and two nieces, Mrs. C. W. Gilmer of New Orleans, La., and Mrs. E. P. Alexander of this city.

TWO YEAR OLD CHILD TAKES RIDE IN PLANE

Possibly Lindbergh was the first to hop the Atlantic but it will be admitted that he did not start his flying career at two and one-half years of age. That was what Jackie Gray, 2½ year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Gray of Alexandria did Sunday. The youngster became so enthused when he witnessed the plane at the flying field east of the city Sunday that he insisted that his father take him a ride. His parent accompanied him on his trip over the city and upon his return to the field encountered some difficulty in removing his daring offspring from the plane, as he insisted on taking another trip.

Alexander is quite proud of Master Jackie and he is nearly three years younger than the child in Springfield, who made a flight in a plane a few days ago. Town prophets are prophesying that if he develops his flying talent according to his age that Central Illinois will within a few years boast a son who can fly "around" Lindbergh, Chamberlin, Byrd and other great aviators of this day.

COUNCIL PASSES MAIN ST. SEWER ORDINANCE

Estimate Improvement at Outlet Cost $31,000—Monthly Reports Made by City Officials.

The passing of the ordinance for changing the outlet of the North Main street sewer was the chief piece of business transacted at the meeting of the city council held last evening. Routine matters were attended to and certain citizens were given an opportunity to air their grievances.

A communication was read from the Warren Printing company argued that their bid was made on a 48 page book whereas the completed book ran to 72 pages. The matter was referred to the finance committee.

The report of the city treasurer, H. C. Clement, was read and showed on hand $20,030.08 in the general fund.

The June report of the health officer, Dr. W. H. Newcomb, showed 31 cases of communicable diseases in the city, 47 deaths, 33 births and one stillbirth.

Alderman Randall of the water committee reported that work was progressing on the repairs of the dam, and that work would start on sandbagging the old spillway this week.

It was moved and passed that bids on 13 sidewalk ordinances previously passed be advertised. These bids effect properties on the following streets: South Sandy, West Morton, South Mauvalterre, West Grove, South East, North Diamond, West Court, Franklin, South West and West Morgan. New sidewalk ordinances were introduced but are to lay over until the next meeting.

The improvement of the North Main street sewer was read, and the price estimated was announced as $31,000. Of this sum it was said that considerable money would be needed to replace paving torn up and to pay the share of the North Main sewer in the expense of constructing the second ward sewer outlet. Four and one half per cent of the estimated cost was named as the engineer's fee. There was objection by some of the aldermen to paying the engineer a per cent on the estimated cost, and the matter was then referred to a committee. It was explained that the improvement was necessary as the old North Main outlet had been badly damaged and as the city would within four years have to construct a sewage disposal plant at the outlet of the second ward sewer, into which the North Main sewage would have to be carried.

The ordinance providing for the paving of Lockwood Place and Parnassus Place was passed. The estimated price was $9,500.

An ordinance was passed vacating Diamond alley.

Mrs. Sarah Hoban appeared to protest that she was unable to pay the sewer assessment levied upon her, and was assured by the council that she would meet fair treatment.

Earl Lewis, whose property situated at the end of Henry street was damaged when the dam broke last fall, appeared with his attorney to ask compensation of the city. The council accepted the opinion of the city attorney that the city was not responsible for the great rains or for the dam breaking, and consequently took no action.

Earl Johnson and Granville Stacey, residents of North street complained that there was no suitable railroad crossing easily accessible to residents of the street, and remarked that children going to school were in danger in crossing the tracks. The city attorney said that the street was not platted to back compensation of the city. The council accepted the opinion of the city attorney that the city was not responsible for the great rains or for the dam breaking, and consequently took no action.

Judge William E. Thomson, attorney for Charles Story in the matter of determining whether a sewer assessment levied on certain property on Liberia street was justifiable, appeared for his client and asked the council to release judgment on the property, which he claimed was not within the city limits. There was much doubt as to whether the property was or was not within the city limits and the fact that holders of the property had voted in the city and had sent their children to the city schools complicated the affair.

A motion was carried that judgment be not released.

LARGE CROWD AT SWIMMING POOL

Sunday marked the largest crowd that has attended the swimming pool this season. A noticeable increase has been shown this summer over that of last year, and the crowd of 900 enjoyed the swimming facilities Sunday show that a greater interest than ever before is being exhibited among the Jacksonville residents.

C. OF C. TO STAGE NOVEL STUNTS HERE

Special Sales To Be Made By Merchants Of City Saturday, July 23.

One of the most sensational sales ever held here, accompanied by airplane stunts and other novelties, will be staged Saturday, July 23 according to an announcement from Chamber of Commerce headquarters yesterday.

The big sale will be heralded far and wide by Mervin Arto, local aviator, who will fly his plane over all Jacksonville's trade territories and throw down "treasure packages" to the lucky inhabitants thereof. These treasure packages, small pasteboard satellites, will each contain an order good for some article of Jacksonville merchandise.

The territory will include towns as far south as Carrollton and as far north as Beardsboro, Franklin and Waverly, will of course be in the plane's itinerary.

On Saturday a great treat is in store for the shoppers who will flock to the city. Daredevil flyers, the Florida ace has been signed to do stunt flying over the city. A great thrill will be given one and all by a parachute jump by C. E. Lamond, the 74 year old parachute jumper, who will not leap from a balloon as the rate of speed with which the plane is travelling thru the air puts the jumper in danger of his life from contact with the rear parts of the plane. Many cases are on record of jumpers being cut in two by the steering wires of the plane they were jumping from.

Lamond is not only the oldest parachute jumper in the country, but is one of the most famous. For many years he jumped for circuses and other shows, and has lately taken to independent work. There will be two aero acts Saturday afternoon, one early and one late.

Other entertainment features are being worked up, and one big feature of the day will be the arrival at 9:30 o'clock in the morning of the great trans-continental survey of the Pikes Peak-Ocean to Ocean highway.
